

I TALKED TO THE TREES (AS I WALKED BY THE RIVER)

Words & music by Michael Lehr

1. Well, I
2. Well, I
3. If there's
4. With such talked to the trees as I walked by the ri- ver, and I gazed at the flowers as I stood in my gar- den, and I one thing we love it's a pup- py or kit- ten. Just one joy to be found we should love one a- no- ther. Ev- ry asked them a- loud what they thought of the gi- ver of the asked them po- lite- ly, just beg- ging their par- don, but I look in their eyes and we're to- tal- ly smit- ten, for their per- son on earth should be sis- ter and bro- ther. It's so life that they po- sessed, for I real- ly was im- pressed how they wan- ted so to know if they knew who made them grow, for they play- ful- ness and fun brings a smile to ev'- ry- one, and they ve- ry plain to see that's the way it's meant to be, for we all dis- played the glo- ry of the Fa- ther. But they all dis- played the glo- ry of the Fa- ther. But they all dis- play the glo- ry of the Fa- ther. Though they all dis- play the glo- ry of the Fa- ther. Let our

I Talked To The Trees -2

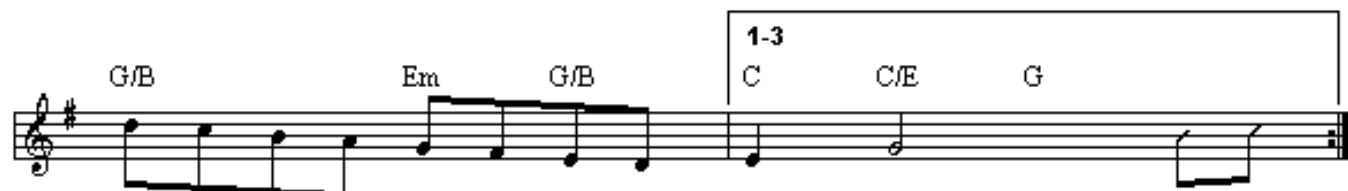

said not a word, on- ly si- lence could be heard, (no, they said not a word, on- ly si- lence could be heard, (no, they say not a word, still they make their voi- ces heard, (though they voic- es ring clear so that ev- ery- one can hear, (let our said not a word, on- ly si- lence could be heard), but they said not a word, on- ly si- lence could be heard), but they say not a word, still they make their voi- ces heard). As they voic- es ring clear so that ev- ery- one can hear), for each held their bran- ches high as they reached up to the sky, and they nod- ded and they swayed, what a love- ly sight hey made, as they bark and they mi- aow they are tel- ling us some- how that we tree or flower or child, ev'- ry crea- ture tame or wild, we should all dis- played the glo- ry of the Fa- ther.

 all dis- played the glo- ry of the Fa- ther.
 all dis- play the glo- ry of the Fa- ther all dis- play the glo- ry of the Fa- ther.

Fa- ther.
 Fa- ther.
 Fa- ther
 Fa- ther.